Bankruptcy Counseling (Pre-Filing) Disclosure

Welcome! We understand that you are here because you are considering filing for bankruptcy and are required to participate in a 90-minute one-on-one counseling session before you file. Your fee for this session is $50 (single or couple). This counseling session is offered to clients without regard to ability to pay. Bankruptcy Counseling clients for their family size, who have an annual gross income below 150% of current Federal Poverty Guidelines, are presumed to be entitled to a fee waiver. HCCI will initiate the required counseling session in the same manner whether a fee is paid or not. If HCCI can demonstrate that you have the ability to pay (based on income information submitted), HCCI may charge a reduced fee of $25, this is called a "rebuttable presumption".

When non-English speaking person indicates to HCCI staff they need interpretative services or need additional resources for interpretation beyond the resources that may be provided by family, friends or community agencies, HCCI will engage appropriate services from an approved list of agencies and individuals.

This agency has over 40 years of experience in helping people with financial issues through educational information and non-judgmental assistance. The consumer credit counselor conducting your interview has been trained and certified in accordance with NFCC standards. While he/she has expertise in helping those with financial issues, he/she cannot provide legal advice. This session is designed to provide you with information and alternatives. It is not intended to take the place of a consultation with an attorney to explore your legal rights and options. We will provide a budget analysis that will examine your financial situation, discuss factors that may be the cause of your issues and explore your options for developing a reasonable plan for dealing with them. HCCI will provide information on bankruptcy such as the process and possible consequences of bankruptcy. Pre-filing bankruptcy counseling will not impact your credit reports. If you elect to file bankruptcy it will have a negative impact on your credit reports and is a matter of public record. HCCI will inform you of the potential impacts on your credit report of all alternatives discussed. Potential impacts vary on each individual client situation but may include lower credit score, able to use credit in the future and late payments being reported to the credit reporting agencies. It is essential that you provide us with information that is as accurate and complete as possible. We may ask you to authorize us to access your credit history. The information you provide concerning your financial condition and status is strictly confidential. Such information would include, but is not limited to: income, debts, credit accounts, earnings, assets and employment data. We will not disclose any such information that you provide orally or in writing to anyone, except as authorized by you in writing or as required by law, such as in response to a subpoena. We may compile data and aggregate information from data that you give us, but this information will not be disclosed in any manner that would personally identify you. This agency will not provide any information about this session to a credit reporting agency. You will have the opportunity to negotiate alternate unsecured debt payment schedules if you choose to enter into a Debt Management Plan that will be explained during the counseling session. A Debt Management Plan may affect your credit rating and ability to use credit in the future. A separate agreement and disclosure form is required to initiate a Debt Management Plan. HCCI offers Debt Management Plans, but your counselor will provide you a list of alternative agencies. Alternative agencies may charge additional fees for their counseling session.

Our agency has been approved to issue certificates evidencing completion of a personal financial credit counseling session in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. Approval does not endorse or assure the quality of a Provider's services. This agency is a member of the National Foundation for Credit Counseling (NFCC). The NFCC has high standards for quality credit counseling and financial education, and this agency complies with those standards. In addition, this agency is accredited by the Council on Accreditation (COA), an independent third-party organization that reviews and monitors entities that provide social services. We are a non-profit agency. We are organized and operate in accordance with Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

HCCI prohibits payment or receipt of referral fees for all services. Bankruptcy Counseling certificates of completion are obligated to be issued promptly within one business day; only after the counseling is completed. Bankruptcy Credit Counseling certificates are valid for 180 days from the date the counseling was completed. Upon request, a copy of the certificate can be sent to your bankruptcy attorney. Completion of the counseling evaluation form is encouraged in order to evaluate and improve our services.

HCCI might disclose your information to the United States Trustee in connection with their oversight, or during the investigation of complaints, during on-site visits, or during quality of service reviews. The United States Trustee has only reviewed HCCI's bankruptcy credit counseling and instructional course, therefore has not reviewed or approved any other services provided by HCCI.

This agency also receives funding in the form of grants from entities that support financial counseling, state and governmental units and creditors. A significant portion of funding for this agency comes from voluntary contributions from creditors who participate in Debt Management Plans. Since creditors have a financial interest in having debts paid, most are willing to make a contribution to help fund the overall services of this agency. These contributions are usually calculated as a percentage of payments that are made through a DMP. Again, should you decide to enter into a DMP, you will receive specific information on how the plan works and how the agency is funded.

I have read and understand the disclosures made above.
